PRIOR REVOCATION

The court revoked supervised release on February 16, 2005, and sentenced defendant to an additional 90 days of imprisonment, followed by 33 months of supervised release. Shortly thereafter, supervision of defendant was transferred to California.

PRESENTLY ALLEGED VIOLATIONS AND DEFENDANT'S ADMISSION OF CERTAIN ON THOSE VIOLATIONS

In two successive applications, on August 2, 2006 and on July 7, 2008, USPO Michael Larson alleged that defendant violated the conditions of supervised release in three respects:

- (1) Committing the new crime of bank robbery, on or about June 28, 2006;
- (2) Committing the new crime of robbery, on or about June 28, 2006; and
- (3) Committing the new crime of prisoner in possession of a weapon, on or about August 12, 2006.

The second charge, committing "robbery," was intended to substitute for the first charge, committing "bank robbery," to conform to the new offense of which defendant was convicted in state court in California.

Defendant admitted the violations numbered 2 and 3 above, waived any hearing as to whether they occurred, and consented to having the matter set for a disposition hearing before Chief Judge Lasnik. The United States agreed to dismiss the first alleged violation.

RECOMMENDED FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS

Based upon the foregoing, I recommend the court find that defendant has violated the conditions of his supervised release in the respects alleged in the charges numbered 2 and 3 above; dismiss the allegation numbered "1;" and conduct a disposition hearing. That hearing has been scheduled for July 17, 2008 at 8:30 a.m.
